This will take you to a screen with a calendar. You will need to type in your learner's permit number and expiration date. Then, use the calendar to select open periods. If a date is colored green, that means it has open drives. Click on that date on the calendar to see the available drive times. When you find a period you'd like to register for, click the "Register Now" button.

You can also sign up for the waiting list for drive periods by clicking the box next to "Email me if this period becomes available." Then, if someone cancels, you will be notified and will have the opportunity to take that spot.

Notes:

- You will only be able to register for four drives.
- The state requires a valid temporary permit for all drives. If you forget your permit, you will not be able to drive and will be charged $100.
- If you are late or fail to give more than 24-hours' notice before cancelling a drive you will be charged $100 (exceptions will be made for illness).
- AAA recommends a week between drives to give students time to practice the skills they've learned.
- If you have questions, please email drivereducation@aaaohio.com or call 614-431-7888.
